

Vancouver Aquarium Membership Terms and Conditions

All memberships issued by the Vancouver Aquarium, an Ocean Wise Initiative, are non-refundable and non-transferable and are for the exclusive use of the person to whom it is issued.

The Vancouver Aquarium has the right to revoke memberships if the holder abuses access, is unruly or disrespectful of Aquarium rules, or the terms and conditions of aquarium membership.

A valid Vancouver Aquarium membership card – either physical or digital card - must be presented at the gate to gain entry to the Vancouver Aquarium. The Vancouver Aquarium reserves the right to request identification for members entering the aquarium.

All membership levels provide unlimited admission for named individuals.

A free guest pass (one time use) is provided with Family & Adult membership types. Senior, Student, Youth and Child membership do not come with a free guest pass.

A Family Membership consists of two adults (19 and over) and up to four children between 4 and 18 years old. Children under 4 years are free. Up to three additional family members may be added to a Family Membership at the prevailing price.

A student is anyone 18 years and older with a valid student card from any post-secondary education institution. Students must provide a current ID card on first visit.

A Child pass does not include Member discounts.

Participants of Aquarium programs must have a current membership at the time of registration. Both the person registering and person participating must be members to receive member benefits.

Member discounts do not include daily specials at the Café, specified sales items in Gift Shop or the independent gift shop at the Vancouver International Airport.

Prices, terms and conditions may be changed without notice.
